Ribbon Cutting and Opening of the Prep School Annex ~ On Thursday, we celebrated the opening of the new Prep School Annex with a ribbon cutting at 9am before opening the doors to our students and their families for the very first time! If you have not yet seen our phenomenal, indescribable, state-of-the-art facility, you must come visit us soon! From the Bulldog Café to the five classrooms to the Art Studio to the unique pieces crafted from one of the oak trees that once stood on our ground, we are beyond blessed that this amazing space will serve the needs of our students both now and for years to come! We are deeply grateful to all of those who have generously invested their time, talents, and financial resources in Georgia Military College Preparatory School – a place where young lives are changed forever.
